

IN SHADOW OF ALAMO

San Antonio Never Before Saw Such a Demonstration.

PRESIDENT AT FORT.

Reviews Troops at San Houston, the Children Sing "America" While Waving Flags and Executive Makes a Speech.

San Antonio, April 8.—Never has such a patriotic demonstration been witnessed here as that which greeted President Roosevelt Friday upon his first visit to San Antonio since he organized the famous regiment of Rough Riders in the spring of 1898. All the principal business thoroughfares were a flutter of flags and bunting and the president's picture was in evidence everywhere. The weather was bright and pleasant. The city was early astir to prepare its welcome for the president. He passed a night of sound rest in his special train, where a detail of police was on guard duty throughout Thursday night. At 9:30 o'clock a committee of citizens called on the president and escorted him to Fort Sam Houston. Despite the early hour the entire route was lined with people who gave the chief an enthusiastic welcome. The president stood in his carriage, bowing and smiling. When Fort Sam Houston was reached a salute of twenty-one guns was fired. President Roosevelt was welcomed by General Jesse M. Lee, commanding the department of Texas. After a few minutes' chat with the officers the president reviewed the troops, who paraded in full uniform.

Leaving Fort Sam Houston, the party moved to the city, where 10,000 school children awaited the president at Travis park. When he entered every child held aloft a tiny United States flag and waved it vigorously. The children sang "America" and the president bared his head and seemed to be pleased with the spectacle. The president here was joined by an escort of honor, made up of veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and United Confederate Veterans. The procession then moved to the Alamo. The historic old fort was in gala attire, and in the plaza beneath the walls a stand covered with flags and bunting bearing a large picture of the president had been erected. The president, with his escort, ascended the stand and delivered a speech.

Texas wild flowers were used as a carpet for the grand stand on Alamo plaza, from which President Roosevelt delivered his speech. Blue bonnets, sweet williams, primroses and a dozen other kinds of flowers were scattered in profusion over the platform and the railings were covered.

The president was introduced by Hon. J. H. Kirkpatrick. The plan was packed with people and the address was frequently interrupted by cries of "That's right!" After finishing his speech the president was taken in charge by the Rough Riders. He was their exclusive guest throughout the afternoon. Luncheon was had at the camp in the fair grounds enclosure.

The headless, legless body of a man still warm was found at San Francisco.

For over 100 years the impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

It will nourish and strengthen the body when milk and cream fail to do it. Scott's Emulsion is always the same; always palatable and always beneficial where the body is wasting from any cause, either in children or adults.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

SCOTT & BOWNE
CHEMISTS
405 Pearl St., New York
50c. and $1.00.
All Druggists.

HUNT IN BIG PASTURE

President and His Party Go After the Wolves of That Region.

CAMP ON CREEK BANK

Reservation Over Which Nimrods Are Seeking Their Prey Comprises Four Hundred and Eighty Thousand Acres.

Frederick, Okla., April 10.—President Roosevelt and party are now in the big pasture of 480,000 acres hunting wolves. Their camp is on a bank of the Deep Red creek, eighteen miles southeast of this place.

Five huge loads of camp equipage from the president's train were taken out to camp and supplies were drawn from Frederick in army wagons.

At the camp are a pack of hounds belonging to Colonel Lyon, and thirteen from Amarillo, besides a score or more of trained dogs belonging to J. R. Abernathy of this place.

Two colored porters are on hand to look after the sleeping arrangements, and a colored chef in the employ of the Cotton Belt route is attending to the culinary matters.

The camp consists of about twenty men belonging to the presidential party, and is called Camp Roosevelt. One large tent is occupied as a mess hall, a number of tents being used for sleeping apartments, about four cots being placed in each tent.

About a stone's throw from these tents is Camp Quahar Parker, occupied by three of his squaws and some other Indians. These Indians traveled over forty miles to get to see the president.

A detail of twenty troops from Fort Sill keep trespassers from this part of the reservation. Their camp is about 100 yards from that of Camp Roosevelt. The people here, however, appreciate the fact that the president is here for an outing, and are remaining away from the pasture. The president surprised the cowboys and cattle-men by his knowledge of horses.

Dr. Lambert has taken some views with which to illustrate an article to be written by President Roosevelt concerning the hunt. In the hunting party are, besides the president, General Young, Col. Cecil A. Lyon of Sherman, Cap. Burk Burnett, Sloan Simpson, Lieut. G. R. Portocarrero, Dr. Alexander Lambert of New York, J. R. Abernathy of Frederick, the two ranger captains, United States Marshal Bill Fossett of Guthrie and L. D. Miller, one of the owners of the 101 ranch.

PRESIDENT PRAISED.

Prominent Mormon Has a Good Word for the Chief Executive.

Salt Lake City, April 10.—The seventy-fifth annual conference of the Mormon church closed Sunday after its members present had unanimously voted it the best conference in the history of the church. Those who recently have attacked the church and its leaders were referred to in an address by J. Golden Kimball, one of the first presidents of 70's, who said:

"If it were not for Joseph F. Smith, a man of God, who restrains his children, and they are obedient to their father, I want to tell you there would be some men here horsewhipped. But his children obey him and he is a man of God, and needs to one to apologize for him." Kimball denounced President Smith's critics as traitors to the church, and added: "If you want to go to hell, black your boots and go like a gentleman, not like a traitor!"

Apostle Hiram Mack Smith, son of President Joseph F. Smith, also attacked the critics of the church, and especially newspaper writers, and said President Roosevelt was obliged to have a guard when he traveled because of the libelous slanders and cartoons about him in the newspapers. Apostle Smith further said:

"In President Roosevelt we have a friend, and he has friends among the Latter Day Saints, and we will be true to him, and true to Old Glory because we are a true people. President Roosevelt will give us a true deal. We will do all we can to sustain President Roosevelt, for we are true to him, and we will demonstrate it in the future, as we have in the past."

Return to Washington.

Washington, April 10.—Mrs. Roosevelt and three of her children, who have been away on a short cruise in Florida waters, returned to Washington Sunday.

YOUNG COUPLE KILLED.

Train Strikes Buggy and Couple of Deaths Is Result.

Marietta, L. T., April 10.—While W. M. Simmons, aged twenty years, and Miss Mary Purser, sixteen, were attempting to cross the Santa Fe track at Overbrook, ten miles north of here, Sunday, a freight train struck the buggy containing the couple. The young man struck the horses. They sprang forward, breaking loose from the vehicle, leaving it on the track. The buggy was demolished. Mr. Simmons' body was mangled almost beyond recognition. The young lady was seriously bruised, yet killed. Both parties resided at Overbrook.

Destructive Fire.

Lawton, April 10.—A prairie fire in southwest Greer county, Oklahoma, has caused the destruction of several thousand dollars' worth of food stuff, many out buildings, some livestock and several hundred acres of growing crops. Sparks from a locomotive started the fire.

Former Mayor Hemingway and former acting City Attorney Thompson of Jackson, Miss., have been indicted for alleged malfeasance in office.

DON'T GET BLUE

You may feel out of sorts, all run down, cross, irritable, headache, back ache, nervous, discouraged, blue—but you need not. Eat what you want, keep regular hours, get plenty of sleep and take a small dose of after each meal. If constipated, take a tablespoonful before going to bed.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

Mrs. Sarah A. McFarland, of Corning, Ohio writes as follows: "While visiting in Taylorville, Ill., I came across Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I have used it and am now a confirmed believer in its value. It has done more good than all the medicine I have used for some time. Please let me know if you can send me a box or four bottles and what it will cost to ship it to Corning, Perry County, Ohio, and address."

Your druggist sells this remedy if he is a good druggist 50c and $1.00 bottles.

Yours Truly,
O. L. Shannon

PEPSIN SYRUP, DR. CALDWELL, INC., N.Y.

O. L. Shannon

TALKS OF COMRADES.

President Roosevelt Says Much of the Men He Commanded.

PLEASED WITH TEXAS

Considered Himself a Good American Before Entering the Lone Star State, but Says Visit Has Made Him a Better One.

San Antonio, April 9.—Between 75,000 and 100,000 persons greeted President Roosevelt here. The people felt that they had as their guest, not only the president of the United States, but the magnate "Teddy," toward whom the people of San Antonio feel a peculiar sense of the proprietorship on account of the fact that it was here that the regiment was organized which started him on his way to the white house.

The president was delighted with the reception accorded him. He was kept busy bowing right and left acknowledging outbursts of enthusiasm. It is seven years, approximately, since he left San Antonio with his Rough Riders. "No human being dreamed that after that I would return as president of the United States," he said in a short address at the depot.

The Alamo Plaza, within the shadow of the old Alamo, which the president, in his speech said seven years ago filled him with a determination to do nothing to reflect on the heroes who died there, he was greeted in a manner which touched the deepest springs of his nature. His arrival was the signal for a burst of cheering which lasted until after he had taken his seat on the stand, and which was renewed when he arose to respond to the address of welcome by City Alderman Kirkpatrick. The president's speech was frequently punctuated by uproarious applause. He made a characteristic address. He was pleased that San Antonio agreed with him in his ideas on race suicide. He noted with satisfaction the attention Texans are paying to education. The law of the worthy life, the effort in a cause worth striving for, was his theme. His reception throughout Texas has pleased him. "While I thought I was a good American when I came to Texas," he said, the magnetic "Teddy," toward whom the old spirit was not altogether lost. This regiment served under men who had themselves fought in the Civil war, both under Grant and under Lee. The commander of the cavalry division was that great, gallant ex-Confederate soldier, Major General Joseph Wheeler; and our immediate commander, our brigade commander, was an ex-Union soldier who entered the Union army as a private, and to whom for my great good fortune, it befell me to sign the commission as lieutenant general of the army of the United States—Lieut. Gen. Young. Afterward at San Juan the cavalry served under General Sumner, from whom I took my orders. I am going to tell you just one anecdote of General Young. Before the war began I told him I was going to do my level best to get into it, and that I wanted to get a chance for some fighting. He said, "All right, I will have a cavalry brigade, and if you come with me I will guarantee that you shall see fighting," and he kept his word, as he always does.

"I cannot say how much it meant to me to be able to take part in raising that regiment under the shadow of the Alamo. My admiration for Texas and Texans is no new thing. Since I have been a boy and first studied the history of this country my veins have thrilled and tingled as I read of the mighty deeds of Houston, of Bowie, of Crockett of Travis, of the men who were victorious at the fight at San Jacinto, of the even more glorious men who fell in the fight of the Alamo, of which it was said, Thermopylae had its messengers of death, but the Alamo had none."

"I remember so well seven years ago,

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Of the Indian Territory Cotton Products Company That Claims Not Presented Within the Time Prescribed by Order of Court Will Be Barred.

Whereas, In the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, at Atoka, in a certain cause styled Chas. E. Kimball, et al, plaintiffs, vs. The Indian Territory Cotton Products Company, defendant, and numbered 1363, on the 15th day of February, A. D. 1905, an order was entered providing that all creditors of said defendant corporation should present their claims to said court within ninety days from the 27th day of February.

A. D. 1905, by filing them with the clerk of said court for the purpose of sharing in the distribution of the assets of said defendant; and

Whereas, Notice has been published by the clerk of said court pursuant to said order, the first notice appearing in the Durant Weekly News on February 24th, A. D. 1905; and

Whereas, on the 17th of March A. D. 1905, in said court, a supplemental order was entered as a part of said original decree expressly providing that all claims not presented in accordance with the provisions of said order entered in said cause on February 15, A. D. 1905, should be expressly barred and further providing that the clerk of this court should publish notice in some newspaper published in the Central District of the Indian Territory for four consecutive weeks, warning all creditors of said defendant corporation that unless they present their claims in accordance with the terms of said order and within the time prescribed by said order that the same shall be expressly barred; and all creditors are accordingly hereby warned.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court on this 22nd day of March, A. D. 1905.

E. J. FANNIN, Clerk.
(SEAL) By J. D. CATLIN, Deputy
First insertion March 24, w4t.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable, consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me and saved my life. Since then I have used it for over ten years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for coughs, sore throats or colds; sure preventative of Pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c and $1 bottles at all druggists. Trial bottle free.

raised and organized in this city, took part in what were only skirmishes compared with the campaigns in which you did your share, and all that we claim is that while it was not given to us to have the chance to do great deeds, yet we hope we made you feel that the old spirit was not altogether lost. This regiment served under men who had themselves fought in the Civil war, both under Grant and under Lee. The commander of the cavalry division was that great, gallant ex-Confederate soldier, Major General Joseph Wheeler; and our immediate commander, our brigade commander, was an ex-Union soldier who entered the Union army as a private, and to whom for my great good fortune, it befell me to sign the commission as lieutenant general of the army of the United States—Lieut. Gen. Young. Afterward at San Juan the cavalry served under General Sumner, from whom I took my orders. I am going to tell you just one anecdote of General Young. Before the war began I told him I was going to do my level best to get into it, and that I wanted to get a chance for some fighting. He said, "All right, I will have a cavalry brigade, and if you come with me I will guarantee that you shall see fighting," and he kept his word, as he always does.

"I cannot say how much it meant to me to be able to take part in raising that regiment under the shadow of the Alamo. My admiration for Texas and Texans is no new thing. Since I have been a boy and first studied the history of this country my veins have thrilled and tingled as I read of the mighty deeds of Houston, of Bowie, of Crockett of Travis, of the men who were victorious at the fight at San Jacinto, of the even more glorious men who fell in the fight of the Alamo, of which it was said, Thermopylae had its messengers of death, but the Alamo had none."

"I remember so well seven years ago,

Durant Grocery Co.

WHOLESALE and RETAIL.

Largest Stock of Groceries in DURANT.

We buy flour, potatoes and canned goods in car lots, and can save you money. We will have in season Red Rust Proof Seed Oats and Second Crop of Oklahoma and Tennessee Triumph Seed Potatoes. Be sure and plant these seed. They are the surest crop, best yielders and best keepers, and sell for more on the market. We are headquarters for and especially solicit your trade. We pay the highest market price for all kinds of produce. If you have anything to sell bring it to us, we want to buy it. If you need groceries, come and see us, we want to sell you.

UNION FARMERS

Durant Grocery Company

J. A. Simmons---C. J. Hardage
North Side, East Main Street

WOMEN WHO SUFFER FROM Sick Headache SHOULD USE

HERBINE

TRADE MARK

For Permanent Relief

HERBINE acts directly on the Liver. It will cure CONSTIPATION, DYSPEPSIA, MALARIA AND CHILLS. It is entirely free from all poisonous mineral substances, and is composed solely of LIFE-GIVING HERBS. Especially adapted for weak and weary constitutions; strengthens the weakened glands and organs; it checks all derangements of the human body.

CURED HER SICK HEADACHE

Mrs. Josie Cameron, Centralia Avenue, Temple, Texas, writes: "I find HERBINE gives me quick relief, and take pleasure in recommending it to all women who suffer from sick headache."

WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL

Fifty Cents A Bottle Avoid All Substitutes

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.
St. Louis, U. S. A.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY
Spears & Stone

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led a middling busy life since, and now at last the chance has come to make good the promise, and to have those of the regiment who were able to, to come together here in the city where the regiment was raised, to greet one another."

The president said all classes of people made up the Rough Riders. Men who worked with their hands; men who worked with their heads.

Friday night the president was tendered a banquet at the Menger hotel, at which covers were laid for 163 persons. The Business Men's club presented him with a pair of solid silver spurs with gold buttons and ornaments. At 11 o'clock his train left for Fort Worth.

when we were raising this regiment, riding in here one day to see the Alamo, and going away feeling that come what would, I was going to try to handle myself so that there should no disgrace come to the memory of Americans who died there.

"I wish to express my acknowledgments for the greeting which I have received here in San Antonio, and which I have received throughout the length and breadth of Texas. This is the third time I have visited this beautiful city—and it is such a beautiful city. I wonder if you yourselves, proud though you are of it, appreciate the charm it has to an outsider coming here. It is fifteen years ago that I first came here, simply passing through as a number of other travelers pass through, and saw it. Seven years ago when I came here I was strictly on business. When we go back that year from Santiago I said to the officers of the regiment: 'Now, I have got to have a reunion of the regiment in San Antonio.' All kinds of things happened in between. (Laughter.) I have led